Buffaloes Win From Tech Five At Burton Gym

West Texas State's tree top basketball quintet edged past the Texas Tech Red Raiders here Monday night 41-36 in a thrilling, highly colorful, rivalry filled clash. A crowd which packed every nook and corner of Burton Gym saw the Buffalo cagers leap into an early 11-3 lead only to have the speedy Tech cagers clip the lead to a scant 24-20 margin by halftime.

From the opening of the second half the two quintets battled on even terms until the Red Raiders found a point streak and took the lead 31-29. Big Metz LaFollette, Buffalo forward, meshed in a push shot to tie the game and then sank a gratis shot to move the West Texas boys into a lead they never relinquished.

Three minutes remained in the tightly contested game with the Buffs leading 35-44 when J. L. Houser, reserve guard slipped in four quick points and the game was put on ice.

High light of the contest was the superb guarding performance turned in by Metz LaFollette who held high scoring Garland Head of Tech to one point while he collected 11 tallies himself to lead the hardwood scoring parade. Roland Nabors swished the net for 9 points to lead the Tech attack. Monday's clash was the 55th meeting of the two schools and it was West Texas' 47th win of the series.

Thursday night, the Buffaloes tangled with the rejuvenated Texas Miners in a Border Conference clash at Burton Gym. On Friday night they journey to Abilene to repay a visit to the Hardin-Simmons Cowboys.

Teacher Problem Is Discussed Tuesday by C. A. Murray

C. A. Murray discussed the teacher problem Tuesday at the luncheon of the Rotary Club. The schools are absolutely necessary to the nation, but are not being adequately taken care of by the public.

Three things are needed: Adequate salaries; the profession attractive to young men; and weeding out unqualified teachers.

It will require twenty million dollars extra money to pay the teachers an adequate salary. If this money is secured, will it go to paying salaries or will it be used to expand school facilities? Mr. Murray criticized the over-expanded school system, and the ambition of every school official to add more units.

It now takes from 25c to 40c out of every dollar that business takes in to pay taxes? Where will the increased money be secured? If it cannot be raised at home or at Austin, too many people want to rush to Washington, where the national debt is now $260 billion.

The question of discipline is always acute in the schools, and adds to the grief of the teachers. Those schools which pass every student regardless are dishonest with the pupils.

Too many schools are placing the question of degrees above that of preparation and experience in their teachers.

A tribute was paid to Paul Harris, founder of Rotary 40 years ago, who died in Chicago this week.

Visitors were: E. Kancher, E. Jobe, Arch B. Hunsley, John Hill, Oran Thomas, Forrest Barnes, Horace Griggs, Howard Lynch, J. H. Rapier, all of Amarillo; R. W. Hale of Lubbock.

Office Changes In Court House Are Completed

Following the order of last week from the Commissioners Court, most of moving at the court house has been completed. However, it will be several days before those who moved will be completely settled in.

The surplus newspapers and books of the library are being arranged in the office next to the west door, on the south side.

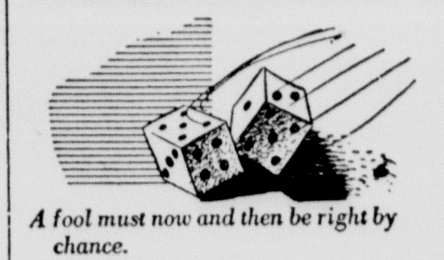

The office just east of this is occupied by the Welfare Officer. This was formerly occupied by Miss Patterson, Home Demonstration Agent.

Miss Patterson is located in the office next to the east door. County Agent H. E. Shahan has the adjoining office to Miss Patterson. While both have the same stenographer, the new arrangement is much more satisfactory.

Morris to Head USO '47 Drive For More Funds

For the next two weeks, the National USO campaign will be underway in Randall county, under the chairmanship of Milton Morris. Randall county's quota for 1947 is $560.00. This will be the last USO Drive for funds, as the term will expire in December of 1947, however after that time the government plans to carry on the USO.

The USO is still serving USO camp shows overseas and has doubled its shows in the hospitals in the States. As of last June 30, there were 215,597 boys in the veterans hospitals, 28,032 awaiting hospitalization, and 62,597 more who had made application. The USO has been and is still doing a great job in keeping the moral high among these hospitalized veterans, and the veterans who are still serving overseas. At the present time there are only 350 USO Clubs in operation in comparison to the 3,035 in operation during the war.

Those who wish, may leave their donations to this worthy cause at the Canyon Chamber of Commerce, City Hall or the Registrar's Office at the College.

Milton Morris will announce further plans for this drive and requests everyone in Randall county to do his part in this last great USO Campaign.

Band Clinic Will Be Held W. T. February 28

Invitations to 60 bands of the Texas Panhandle and Eastern New Mexico are in the mail for the fourth annual high school band clinic scheduled for Friday, Feb. 28, at West Texas State College.

Max A. Mitchell, head of the department of music and director of bands at Oklahoma A. and M. College at Stillwater, will be conductor of the clinic band and also will appear as cornet soloist during the day.

"Mr. Mitchell is one of the country's outstanding music educators," advances M. J. Newman, W. T. band director who is in charge of the clinic, "and we feel certain that a day's work with him will be of immeasurable benefit to band students."

Plans for the clinic include an "all-star" clinic band of 90 to 100 high school musicians selected by their bandmasters. Those chosen for the clinic band will work morning and afternoon clinic sessions under Mr. Mitchell and will be guests of the college for luncheon and dinner.

Other band members not taking part in the clinic group also have a cordial invitation to attend. Most of the music to be studied is from current contest lists so they will have the opportunity to hear music which they are studying at home performed by a fine band under an outstanding director.

Mr. Newman plans to have sectional clinics open to all band students by using directors to help conduct meetings for various instruments.

The West Texas State Concert Band will play, and Omega Tau, W. T. band fraternity, plans a fun session for all visitors following the afternoon clinic.

Recommendations of students for the clinic band is requested by February 15 and lists of their names should be sent to M. J. Newman, West Texas State, Canyon.

"Gives You Texas"

Why don't they put sage in sausage, any more?

I reckon you could call that a "sage" remark.

And, come to think of it, all the sausage I've seen lately could stand a little more sausage in it, too.

The Republicans have backed down on their original intentions of reducing the luxury taxes. The folks back home protested against the tax being lowered on fancy baggage, perfumes, furs and whiskey before the income tax on all of us is reduced.

Last summer Grover Sellers introduced himself to a man who asked, "What business are you in, Mr. Sellers?"

After Sellers said that he was attorney general, the citizen asked, "Are you a candidate for something?" and was given the reply, "Yes, I am running for governor."

The voter who did not call his own name during the brief conversation, was Bill McCraw, himself former attorney general and once a candidate for governor.

(This is bound to be just the way it happened because Bill told me about it himself.)

File under the heading, "What killed vaudeville?"

"And now, friends I'm gonna sing that little ditty entitled, 'Peeping through a Knothole in Father's Wooden Leg.'"

Chal Herry, witty Texas paragon, remarks:

"Yes, it takes a heap o' livin' to make a house a home—and it also takes a house!"

"The test of your personality is which you had first—friends or money."

Too Many Boards Are Retarding Vets Farm Employment

The present farm placement service, as now operated by the U. S. Department of Agriculture through the extension service and county agents in Texas, is causing considerably unnecessary hardships to job-seeking veterans in small communities, Robt. M. McKinley, member of the Texas Unemployment Compensation Commission, declared today.

McKinley said that the present system sets up absurd barriers between unemployed veterans and agricultural jobs that would be qualified to fill. As a direct result, veteran unemployment in Texas is now largely the problem of small agricultural communities even though they have local employment offices staffed to serve workers and employers, whether agricultural or non-agricultural. The Employment Service, although created by Texas and federal laws to benefit all unemployed and all employers seeking workers, is powerless to aid the agricultural worker because of an artificial dividing line.

The Texas Commissioner recently returned from a series of conferences in Washington held by the Legislative Committee of Employment Security Agencies. At these conferences plans were adopted by which every state will urge Congress to return the farm placement service to the Employment Service where the agencies believe it can be efficiently handled.

In most of the smaller communities of Texas veteran unemployment is still the largest problem. McKinley went on to explain. These veterans formerly worked on farms. Although they may be reporting to the local Employment Service office seeking work and although farmers

News In Canyon 25 Years Ago

(Taken from the files of the Randall County News of February 2, 1922)

T. C. Thompson was elected vice-president of the Texas Hardware and Implement Dealers Association. Announcement was made from Amarillo that the Ku Klux Klan would parade in Canyon Friday night at 7:45 o'clock.

Captain H. C. Gamble stated that Company F, newly organized National Guard, will be mustered into service during the coming week.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Millard Word.

Fire destroyed the C. F. Zoellers farm home near Happy. Lard exploded on the stove, badly burning Mrs. A. J. Fonkin, daughter of the Zoellers.

Judge Worth A. Jennings has completed a new plat of Dreamland Cemetery, and opened a new record book of lot owners. Past records were found defective as to the location of lots and ownership.

In those areas may need workers, we can not get veterans jobs on farms.

Under the present system, the veteran must seek out the county agent and apply to him for farm work, return to the employment office to file a second application for work, and then file a claim for readjustment allowances. Farm then on he may draw his $20 a week payments because the Employment Service can not refer him to an agricultural job and there is no system of control by which the Unemployment Compensation Commission may be advised should the veteran refuse suitable agricultural work.

McKinley pointed out that the present county agent system creates a number of absurd artificial barriers. For instance, the Employment Service can refer an individual to a job in a cotton gin, but cannot place him on a job to plow the field surrounding the gin. The Employment Service can get a job for a worker at a packing shed, but at the end of the packing season cannot refer him to a job with a fruit or vegetable grower just across the road.

Commissioner McKinley went on to say that for a smaller community to have a balanced economy it was necessary that there be a normal, seasonal flow of workers between in-town, especially rural, industries and farms surrounding the town. The artificial barrier of the TUCC's not being able to handle farm placements in many instances often shuts off half the local labor market. This causes excessive payments of unemployment insurance which may affect local employers' taxes as well as payments of G. I. readjustment allowances to individuals from whom the Employment Service division of the TUCC could find agricultural jobs if allowed to do so.

This artificial divided program is costing taxpayers thousands of unnecessary dollars each year, McKinley, concluded.

O. T. Carruth, former owner and manager of the Empire Cleaners at Vernon, has accepted a position as cleaner for Monarch Cleaners.

February 10 Is Deadline to File Veteran Claims

Only a few days remain for eligible survivors of veterans who died after their discharge from the armed forces and before August 10, 1946, to file their claims for social security benefits payable back to the time of the veteran's death. Those World War II veterans' survivors who may qualify should apply for benefits at once to avoid possible loss of money, John R. Sanderson, manager of the Amarillo Field Office of the Social Security Administration warned today.

The 1946 veterans' amendment to the Social Security Act provides monthly cash benefits for dependents of ex-servicemen who died or will die within three years after discharge, leaving their survivors without compensation or pensions from the Veterans Administration.

Survivors of ex-servicemen who died before enactment of the amendment on August 10, 1946, were given six months in which to apply for benefits payable back to the date of the veteran's death. That six-month period expires on February 10. Social Security benefits generally are payable retroactively for a maximum period of three months prior to the time claim is filed.

"Applications under the veterans' amendment have been far fewer in this area and nationally than was expected," Mr. Sanderson said. "It is possible that a number of eligible persons have failed to apply for their benefits." They should seek information at once on their possible benefits at the nearest social security office. The Amarillo office is at 324 New Post Office Building.

Benefits may be payable to children under 18 and the widows taking care of them, to widows 65 years of age or older, or, in some cases, to aged dependent parents.

Baptist Young People's Rally at Tulia Feb. 7

A rally of Baptist young people from the churches of Tierra Blanca Baptist Association will be held at the First Baptist Church in Tulia, Friday night at 7:30, February 7, according to an announcement by Robert Kilgore of Canyon, Training Union Director for the Association. Chief speaker will be John Osteen of Hamlin, Texas, former associate pastor of the First Baptist Church in San Diego, Calif. He recently spoke at a large rally of young people in San Diego, having been flown there by them for the one address. He is a young man with a message that seems to catch young people.

The attendance at the meeting will not be confined to young people, but all age groups are expected from the twenty churches of the Association which covers a territory of nearly six counties. Besides a special music program, there will be a well prepared demonstration Training Union program by a group of young people from Canyon under the direction of J. L. Harden.

This rally is a part of the Association's preparation for the simultaneous revivals to be held Feb. 9-23 in nine churches, in cooperation with scores of other revivals in churches over the Texas Plains at the same time. General direction is being given the area campaign by Dr. C. E. Matthews of Dallas, Superintendent of Evangelism for the Baptist General Convention of Texas, according to an announcement by Dr. Roy L. Johnson of Canyon, the recording secretary of the Convention.

Editorials

At this distance it is hard to evaluate the student uprising at A. & M. College against President Gil Gilchrist. The president says that it is due to the fact that the 200 officers of the cadet corps insist upon hazing the freshmen. As a result about 500 freshmen have flunked their work, says the president, and will have to leave college, simply because the student officers insisted that the freshmen do the work which should be done by the so-called officers. If this is at the bottom of the trouble, the president is right in demoting the senior officers. Student uprisings are becoming more and more frequent over the nation as youth insists upon having more and more to say with the organization and administration of colleges. We are old fashioned enough to wonder at this trend in modern education. We wonder if those students who are fortunate enough to be sent to college should not devote more of their time to studies than to trying to run the educational system. As regards Gil Gilchrist, knowing him as we do, we are certain that he told the group of 200 officers plenty when they called him out of bed in the middle of the night to hand in their resignations. Gilchrist has plenty of sharp words at his command, and when he got through with that group they no doubt knew what he was talking about. We certainly hold no brief for Gilchrist, and likewise have no sympathy with the group of students who attempted to restore such an infamous practice as hazing.

Governor Jester has presented a very expansive program to the legislature, all costing more money. At the same time he holds to his campaign promise that there shall be no new taxes. Frankly we do not see how the Governor is going to spend more money and not increase taxes. Of course he is relying on the big cash balance which frugal Coke Stevenson left in the treasury. But members of the legislature have figured out a dozen different ways to spend that cash. We have always noted a growing tendency in the legislature—to be very liberal with new departments and functions of government early in the session, and when it comes to the appropriation bills for the existing institutions, the money is spent and there is nothing left for more than a bare existence. It takes wise planning to spend economically the 100 million dollars available. And we are sending more and more boys to Austin to do this work. The boys are okay, but after all, years of experience should count in public as well as private affairs. Does this make sense?

We see there are several bonus bills pending in the legislature. The most lavish one calls for the expenditure of about 600 million dollars, so the experts say. A few states have already passed bonus bills. Just what good these bills are is beyond us. After all the recent war was a federal war, and not a state war. The citizens of Texas have paid their part in fighting the war, and will continue to pay for years and years to come. We cannot see the necessity of saddling a debt on the state, which in the end will be paid very largely by the veterans. Those of us in the old generation will not have long to worry about the increased cost of living, but those who follow should be considering such problems very carefully.

Two weeks ago the school houses in Tulia, Floydada and Matador were all robbed in one night, by the same methods as used in Canyon recently. It is evident that the same gang pulled the jobs. Last week three business houses in Hereford were burglarized, using the same methods. No one knows who will be hit next, or what town will be the victim. All of the safe cracking jobs bear a close resemblance. There is little doubt that the same gang is pulling these jobs, which have extended to practically every town in the Panhandle. The only way to combat this gang is to make sure that all windows and doors are securely fastened and bolted; that lights are burning so that passers-by may detect any invaders; and to keep as little cash as possible in the business safe. The gang will be caught one of these days, but in the meanwhile it may strike again in Canyon.

When CIO announced that it would make no further demands for wage increases at this time, we felt like throwing our hat into the air—but we were too suspicious for that. It is now revealed that CIO is smart enough to put the monkey on the back of John L. Lewis. If Lewis wins his case in the Supreme Court, CIO will renew its demands for higher wages—and will just about get it. If Lewis has to pay off his fines, CIO will claim to be a patriotic gang. Naturally CIO have a little more respect for popular opinion than Lewis ever had. CIO may have felt that the only way to keep in the good graces of the public was to quiet down in the face of such labor legislation pending in Congress, and the trend which seems to be underway for lower cost-of-living items.

We are probably reaching the age when you call us old fashioned. With all of these plane crashes, we are like the old fellow who watched the plane skillfully land. He was asked if he had ever taken a ride, and replied: "Never been in one, son, but every time I see one land safely, I wish that I had taken that ride."

The record breaking wind of last Wednesday reminds us of those black days in the 30's when the air was filled with dust day after day. Some damage was done in Randall county, according to reports. But the difficulty is that the land was loosened up so that it will really blow if another such high wind hits.

PARENTS' QUESTIONNAIRE

For a long time pupils in American schools have endured the agony of receiving reports on the progress they have made or failed to make in their studies.

Not the least harrowing phase of that experience has been the necessity for having the parents peruse the report cards.

Now comes Richard H. McFeely, headmaster of Friends' Central school in Philadelphia, with a suggestion that may make Dad's and Mother's shoes pinch the other foot.

He suggests that parents might rate themselves on the following points:

1. Do I provide a quiet study room for my children away from family, telephone, and radio?
2. Do I schedule a regular study time, and insist that it be kept?
3. Do I make a "down grade" slip or an unsatisfactory report card an occasion for a parent-child, parent-faculty conference at once?
4. Do I require my children to stay at home and study evenings before a school day?
5. Do I insist that my children get adequate sleep?
6. Do I contribute to my children's morale by avoiding criticism of teachers and school before my children?
7. Is the homework help I give my children such that they do not become dependent upon me?
8. Do I refuse to permit my children to do things of which I do not approve, even when they tell me "everybody else does?"
9. Do I refuse to permit my children unchaperoned parties in my home, or to go to such parties held in the homes of others?
10. Do I listen to my children's aptitudes as I read the report form?
11. Do I praise the good things before I criticize the poor things?

WHAT IS VALUE?

Our reaction to the price of any commodity is naturally conditioned by past experience. Anyone who compares today's prices, for example, with those of 1941 or 1936, is due for a shock. And it is very easy to get into the habit of thinking that "normal" prices, to which we will some day return, are those of a vanished year in which a five-dollar bill would do the job that it takes a ten or twenty to accomplish now.

The hard truth of the matter is that prices are not going to return to the remembered lows, short of an economic debacle of the utmost severity. We have, for example, some $260,000,000,000 worth of Federal debt, which in itself is an inflationary factor. We are paying record wages to all classes of labor, and in many important fields, output per man-hour has declined while costs have risen. We are fastened with the highest taxes, corporate and individual, in our history and these are reflected inevitably in all prices. We are, in short, living in a high-priced economy, and there can be no valid comparison of the present with the past.

The best we can hope for is honest value—which is simply the lowest prices, quality for quality, commensurate with the conditions of the times. The American merchant, whether he operates a little crossroads store or an outlet for a national chain system, is the consumers' most dependable friend in giving us that. He is the man who pares his operating costs in order to hold price raises to the minimum, and to lower prices when he can. He is the man who buys with care, so that the customer will get the most for his money. He can't perform the impossible—but he can and does do all in his power to protect the purchasing power of that green folding stuff you carry in your wallet.

SOCIALISM MARCHES ON

It has often been stated that the appetite of the socialists is insatiable. Once they make inroads on a nation's industries, it is simply a matter of time until the whole economy comes under socialistic attack.

That is being vividly demonstrated in England. The Labor government began with socialization of the British coal industry. Production has been increased, costs have not been lowered, and the miners are as dissatisfied as ever. It is now preparing to take another long step by completely socializing Britain's power and light industry though some of the best experts are extremely pessimistic as to the government's ability to better service or do anything except add billions more to the country's public debt. And, to top it all off, it is planning to extend vast and completely dictatorial governmental powers over farming, farm land, and the farmers themselves.

The farm bill is written in optimistic terms, and heavily stresses such alleged benefits as guaranteed prices and assured markets for agriculture. But it has teeth in it—sharp teeth. For instance, the government reserves the right, under the terms of the bill, to dispossess farmers by compulsory purchase of their land if they fail to comply with government directives and advice given by government agencies. In other words, the bill is written on the familiar totalitarian principle of "Do what we tell you—or else."

There is a lesson here for all free nations—no economy can be part socialistic and part free enterprise. That is the basic issue when our government socializes the power resources of a section of the country or makes private enterprise in any field impossible. If government is to provide our electricity, government may eventually provide our insurance, our food, our newspapers, and everything else. History, which is simply a collection of precedents, proves that conclusively—as England is proving it now.

WHO OWNS INDUSTRY?

Attacks against industry have long been based on charges that it is monopolistically controlled. We heard a Canyon man say the other day, "Oh, well, the big corporations will pay the bill." But the big corporations are owned by "we the people." Just now the oil industry is under fire.

The record shows that there are something like a thousand separate oil companies in this country, all of which are competitively engaged in the fight for business and public patronage in the major companies.

Those Americans are not bloated plutocrats. Their holdings are modest, and represent part of the savings of years of work and thrift. For example, one representative oil company recently published an analysis of its stockholders in its employe magazine. Sixty-three per cent of the holders of common stock owned 100 shares or less. Of the 2,003 preferred stockholders, over 1,500 owned 50 shares or less. The only really large holder is a non-profit foundation engaged in philanthropic and educational work. In short, this company, like the rest of the companies comprising the oil industry, belongs to ordinary Americans—small businessmen, insurance salesmen, municipal officials, retired people living on the fruits of past savings, etc.

If this is monopoly, let the enemies of free enterprise make the most of it. Oil, in company with all representative American industry, belongs to millions of typical citizens who have bought themselves a stake in the American system of productive enterprise.

Whether John L. Lewis wins or loses his fight to have the Supreme Court set aside Justice Goldsborough's injunction and $3 million fine will have little bearing on his wage negotiations in April. The miners' leader will exert every effort to avoid conflict with the operators, even to the point of softening his welfare fund demands.

Top CIO organizers are quietly moving into New Jersey, southern New York, middle and western Pennsylvania to organize small textile and manufacturing industries in an effort to establish a strong Middle Atlantic union bloc.

Russia is preparing to withdraw troops from the Balkans, even before conclusion of peace treaties with Bulgaria, Rumania and Hungary. Purge of anti Communist element in last-named is to fortify native Hungarian Communists for time when Russian bayonets have gone home.

Henry Wallace is on the high road to success as an editor. He's just started in and already he has a squawk from an indignant reader.

The fight on Truman's budget will center on GOP efforts to slash executive expenditures. Republicans will shoot first at Government pay-rolls, aiming to drop a substantial number of the present 2.3 million workers.

WARWICK'S

New Warships Will Fire Guided Missiles

Radical Change in Naval Warfare Is Expected.

WASHINGTON.—Heralding a revolutionary new era in sea warfare, the navy revealed that two new warships will be equipped to fire guided missiles.

A guarded official statement also hinted that the first of the atomic age dreadnaughts—the 45,000-ton battleship Kentucky and the 27,000-ton battle cruiser Hawaii—are being designed to withstand the awesome force of an atomic bomb attack.

It said the designs are based on "war experience, the development of new weapons and the results of operation crossroads."

The navy compared the advent of its first guided missile warships with the development nearly 25 years ago of the aircraft carrier, which proved to be the core of the naval striking force that compelled Japan's surrender.

Vice-Admiral E. L. Cochrane, chief of the bureau of ships, said navy experiments with guided missiles always contemplated shipboard installation.

Design changes, he said, were handicapped until the navy had made more progress in the development of guided missiles.

The result, Cochrane said, is that design studies now being made for the Kentucky and the Hawaii "will lead to a revolution in the striking power of naval warships."

"It is still too early to make any forecast of the ultimate design characteristics of these ships except that they will be guided missile warships," he said.

Of the two ships being converted to meet requirements of the atomic age, the Hawaii was 85 per cent completed and the Kentucky 75 per cent finished before construction was suspended pending the major design changes to incorporate the lessons learned in the war and at the Bikini atomic bomb tests.

Presumably the "major design changes" will mean that the two ships will scarcely resemble any present day craft, particularly with their devices to launch guided missiles.

Oil Chemists Reveal Triumphs in Wartime

CHICAGO.—Petroleum chemists paused in their peacetime quest for 100,000-mile tires and 50-mile-a-gallon gasoline to report to the nation on wartime triumphs.

Speaking to American Chemistry society sessions, they told: Superfuels, up to 130 octane rating, which helped Americans achieve victory in the air.

A production rate 18 times that of World War I for toluene, a TNT ingredient.

The dramatic set-up in synthetic rubber production after the Japs cut off 95 per cent of the world supply.

Development of hydraulic oils for military equipment that were equally efficient in the heat of Sahara or the cold of Alaska.

Three G.I.s Dust Off Old Reich Law, Wed Frauleins

FRANKFURT, GERMANY.—The army newspaper Stars and Stripes said that three G.I.s a few months ago dusted off a 33-year-old German law which permitted a German with opportunity of emigration to be declared stateless, thus renouncing German citizenship. The soldiers got their frauleins declared stateless, then married them the day they were discharged from the army and before signing war department contracts, thus evading military punishment.

Immediately there was a flood of application from 200 or 300 other German girls willing to renounce their citizenship to marry Americans.

They were too late. The military government had plugged that loophole in the ban against Americans marrying Germans by suspending the 1913 German law.

Looking to Big Rental Projects to House Vets

WASHINGTON.—The government is looking to big rental housing projects for a lift in the veterans' emergency housing program.

William D. Flanders, deputy housing expediter, reported prospective construction of enough such projects to house 42,000 families.

The federal housing administration already has agreed to insure mortgages on 20 developments, and construction has begun on some. FHA has funds to insure up to a billion dollars, enough to cover an estimated 150,000 dwelling units.

Former Liner Normandie Will Be Sold as Scrap

WASHINGTON.— President Truman authorized the maritime commission to dispose of the USS Lafayette, the former French luxury liner Normandie, as scrap. The vessel was taken over by the United States nine days after Pearl Harbor. While being refitted as a troop transport she caught fire at a New York dock and overturned. She was refloated but never put to wartime use.

A BASIC ELEMENT
IN FAMILY HAPPINESS

Public Schools Fund Comes From Three Sources

Money to operate the public schools is derived from three sources: Local, state, and federal. During the school year 1945-46, the local school districts contributed 49.6 per cent, the state 47.8 per cent and the Federal government thru vocational, Lanham Act, and Hot Lunch Fund appropriation 2.6 per cent or $5,512,606.

The state provides money thru two sources for the public schools. The Available School Fund is distributed on a per capita apportionment basis and the Equalization Aid appropriation from the General Revenue Fund of the State.

Equalization Aid is made to school districts with a scholastic population of 1250 or less that can show need for special state assistance. The annual appropriation is $14,000,000 per year for the present biennium ending August 31, 1947. Schools receiving equalization assistance comprise roughly 475,000 scholastics and 16,000 teachers. 200,000 children are transported daily from their home to accredited schools.

The Available School Fund provided a per capita apportionment this year of $35.00 per child of school age.

What are local communities doing to help educate their own children is a question often asked? Local support has kept ahead of state support consistently although the constitution provides that the legislature shall provide funds for the operation of the public schools for a period of not less than six months. Local school districts last year collected for maintenance and bond purposes $88,762,161 as compared to the state's contribution of $71,049,911.

The Legislature in 1945 provided that local school districts could levy an ad valorem tax rate not to exceed $1.50 on the $100 of property valuation instead of the maximum of $1.00. On September 1, 1946, sixty-nine of 1,000 independent school districts were levying the maximum tax of $1.50; 27 were levying between $1.25 and $1.50; 29 were levying $1.25 and 34 were levying a rate between $1.00 and $1.25. This number does not include a very large number of common school districts that also levy a rate above $1.00 nor the dozens of independent and common school districts that have increased their property valuations for the purpose of paying better teachers' salaries.

Texas ranks sixth in population figures; yet thirty-third in per capita expenditures for the education of her children. What effect does such an inverse ratio have on qualifications and pay of teachers and the opportunities for the best schools possible for Texas boys and girls?

Mental Disorders Are on Increase Among Americans

Mental disorders today represent a real problem and it is estimated that more than fifty per cent of all hospital beds are filled by persons suffering from mental or nervous diseases, declared Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

It thus appears that modern civilization is exacting a terrific toll. High Speed living, with its cruel exactions upon nature, is responsible for a large part of the trouble. But improper personal conduct must also shoulder much of the blame. The fact is that nearly fifty per cent of the patients entering hospitals for mental disorders are there because of organic or toxic causes.

For example, general paralysis is the direct cause of one-fifth of the mental troubles in males entering hospitals and one-tenth of the disorder for all groups. This condition is an organic disease of the brain due to the germ responsible for syphilis. It is a preventable disease. Early and effective treatment of acquired syphilis will block the end results of general paralysis in the insane.

The excessive use of alcohol is responsible for a number of mental disorders, at least in males. Alcohol and syphilis combined are responsible for approximately one-fifth of the hospitalized insanities. Nevertheless, improper living habits continue to impair many brains. Insufficient sleep, neglect of bodily care and an over forcing of nervous energy are the pitfalls to avoid in this connection.

Nature demands that her fundamental laws be at least reasonably observed. A constant outraging of the physiological economy takes its toll not only in bodies but in minds also. Insanities and lesser nervous disorders could be spectacularly reduced if this fact was more generally respected. Training for mental health must be started in childhood as that is the time when cor-

Tulia And White Deer Squads Lose Contests To Canyon Basketeers

Long, Butler Abbott Warm Up
As Opponents Meet Defeat

Tulia came to Canyon last Friday, January 28, only to lose two games. The Eagle "B" team ran over the Tulia "B" team 31-16. Lee Bailey was high scorer with eight points followed by James Inman with seven points. The Eagle "A" team breezed by the Tulia Hornets even worse, beating them 42-18. Wilbert Long paced the winners with eleven points. Burrus, Wright, and Abbott made ten, nine, and eight points respectively.

Eaglettes Win
The Eaglettes trotted by the White Deer girls to the tune of 20-15. Dorothy Butler was having one of her "good" nights and poured in twelve points to lead the scoring.

White Deer bowed to the mighty Eagles Tuesday, January 28, 44-29. Billy Abbott had sixteen points to be high point man. The visitors had a smooth-working team but weren't smooth enough to keep from being soundly beaten.

Omitted from last week's edition by an error was the Dimmitt game. The Eagles made the trip to Dimmitt Friday, January 24, and came home victors by a margin of 36-22. Hot-rock Billy Abbott made almost half the points in ringing up fifteen tallies.

Play Claude, Vega
On Tuesday night, the Eagles and Eaglettes journeyed to Claude to play the Mustangs. Canyon has beaten Claude twice, previously. Next Friday night Vega comes to Canyon for both boys' and girls' games. The basketball king and queen will probably be recognized that night, also.

THE FUNNIEST BOY IN SCHOOL

Perhaps you don't feel the need of reading "Emily Post," but after taking inventory of ones self and the little tricks that we think "just too, too cute"; such as, blowing the nose in an excessively loud and boisterous manner, sneezing to the remote parts of the room, and scraping chalk or the fingernails on the board to make a screeching sound, you should know that one makes himself very repulsive to the members of the class. They are forced to put up with you day after day with no hopes of relief, ever!

Just a little bit of etiquette would help any one who is troubled with the "show-off spirit." Consideration for the feelings of others is one of the kindest traits one can cultivate. Many of the class members are annoyed too often by the crude actions of uncouth students. Of course, some fellow classmates laugh at these so-called "cut-ups," but really it is not a laughing matter. Why not give everyone in the class an equal chance to learn and not cause so much annoyance!

Ole Cal isn't very newsy this week although he has gathered up a little gossip around the campus of ole Canyon High.

Seems as though Helen Spencer and the guy that drives that tan Oldsmobile have been seen together quite a bit lately!

There's a certain girl on The Eagle's Tale Staff that keeps wondering is "Rusty" Davis will be well in time to go to the FHA Dessert Dinner with her. Could it be any chance be Martha Wilson?

Looks like Frankie Sneed has changed her mind about taking Gerald McDuff to the FHA's Valentine Social, for I overheard their little conversation just before algebra class, Thursday evening!

Muriel Fay Cope has a picture of a certain boy by the name of Bill Scroggins in her notebook and all she can do in study hall and class rooms is to sit and swoon over him. Let's don't take it so hard Muriel Fay!

Jerry Bailly has been wearing an identification bracelet with "Maxine" engraved on it. Now, wonder what Maxine this could be?

It seems that a dead flame started burning again, when Mable Ann Graham invited Jerre Inman to the FHA Valentine Social. How strange!

Wonder why Sue Jennings has been so interested trying to find out who the girl was, that was seen in the office talking to the office girls about liking to go with Ridings Sloan.

You couldn't be jealous by any chance could you, Sue?

Seems as though Don Hickman was about to worry himself to death for fear Rita Gunter wasn't going to ask him to go to the Dessert Dinner, but the other day she got up enough courage to ask him, and talk about being thrilled, he was!

June Jennings has been seen around town with G. J. Bonds lately. Say, June, where does Pat Campbell fit in?

Joan Morton came back to school Wednesday evening as happy as a little birdie. It couldn't have been because she saw Gene Hardeman in town.

Who is this man that Freda Menke and Betty Slagle were fussing over the other day? From what I gather, it is a boy at WT high school, and he rides the Trigg school bus.

I wonder why Laverne Hinders stopped Guy Brant in the hall Friday morning. It couldn't have been to ask him to go to the FHA Social could it?

We hear that Jo Ann Bullard had a wonderful time in Plainview over the week end; seems as though she ran on to some old friends. Hubba, hubba.

Who is this "Peck," Fay Dodson talks about constantly?

Wonder which Senior girl it is that thinks C. L. Hood is just about the cutest thing this side of heaven. Now girls, let's confess! (C. L. don't get the big head!)

What's this I hear about Tommy Gooch getting "Stood-up" Satur-

Various Folk Declare Building Imperfect

What improvements does our school need? This question was recently put to various folk connected with the school and the following answers were received:

Mr. Shepherd,--a good, outside band house.

Dwight Moore,--new lockers with doors on them.

Earlene Davis,--a mailbox in the hall to save trips to town.

Miss Bowman,--install an automatic bell system.

Mary Sue Foster,--enlarge high school gym.

Laverne Hinders,--A chemistry building a mile from town.

Barbara Head,--we need a new roof.

Miss Davies,--an escalator between Miss Fronabarger's and Mr. Wooten's offices.

Miss Aaron,--more new showers.

Cordell Mahler,--a special building for the seventh and the eighth grades.

Geneva McDougal,--a new trophy case.

Mr. Sanders,--we need a full time principal.

Thus some of the views of a few of our educated scholars were obtained by this roving reporter.

Seniors and Freshmen Hold Business Sessions Monday

Discussions of the formal dance which the seniors plan to stage in connection with the WT graduating class this year was the main feature of interest at the senior class meeting held last Monday.

February 11 is the deadline set for the payment of senior invitations and cards.

The freshmen class, also conducting a class meeting, elected Miss Kathryn Davies sponsor for the second semester. She is replacing Mrs. James Vernon who, last week, moved to Albuquerque, New Mexico.

The group decided to have three parties this semester, one of which will be given February 13.

Bob Jones, president of the class, appointed Sue Jennings chairman of the decorating committee for the coming party.

day night? After all, Mary Ann Sloan, men are still scarce!

Who was that man Weedon Young was seen with Sunday afternoon--you might ask Suzanne Stephenson and Peggy LaLoe--it seems as if they were along too!

Ray Burrus and Lois Collins were enjoying the Saturday night show--good show wasn't it--or didn't you see much of it?

News of the Week:
Miss K. Davies must be intending to buy a new '46 Dodge for she was seen riding down the streets of Amarillo Sunday afternoon. There was surely a good looking gentleman sitting at the wheel.

I heard that some of the Claude girls think Richard Walters and Paige Carruth are about the cutest things in the world.

Warwick Prints CHS Publication

CLYDE W. WARWICK

Mr. Clyde Warwick is the person who makes it possible for us to print the Eagle's Tale each week.

Mr. Warwick is the first editor in Texas to give a high school publication a page in a weekly newspaper free of charge. He has been publishing The Eagle's Tale for twenty-one years.

This also makes many years for his publishing the Canyon News, thirty-six to be exact. Before coming to Canyon he was affiliated with a newspaper in Iowa. Incidentally, he is a graduate of the University of Iowa.

"On the whole the Eagle's Tale staff has been a good group to work with, and I have enjoyed working with them," states Mr. Warwick.

Photographing Is Near Completion

Pictures of the CHS 1946 football squad were made last Monday. These photographs, to be used in the yearbook, were made by the Southwest Studios of Amarillo with Mrs. Charles Kiker and Mr. Kuykendall as photographers. Retakes were also made at that time.

Wednesday, Pat Britain of the Britain Studios in Canyon, made pictures of the first, the second, and the junior teams of boys' basketball. He also made pictures of the girls' first and second strings.

Class officers' pictures were made Thursday along with action shots of various classrooms, the seventh and the eighth grades being among the group.

"Our photography work is nearing completion," states Mrs. Nora E. Gilmore, annual sponsor, "We are quite pleased with the work and wish to express our appreciation to everyone who aided us in any way."

FHA Meeting Is Thursday Night

Hobo Day will be observed by the FHA club March 1 this year as decided in the regular meeting last Thursday night. Then the girls will offer their work for certain sums that will be used for the benefit of the club.

Club members decided to change plans about the banquet, having instead a desert party and also discussed games to play. It will take place February 11, in the CHS gym.

It was decided that semester dues will be 25c.

Donna Erwin was elected treasurer since Pauline Seales resigned.

James Rigsby was unable to attend school last Tuesday and Wednesday due to illness.

Absenteeism Foils Teachers' Plans

Mrs. Ray Hornstra, of the history department, was absent from school the past two weeks due to illness. Mrs. J. R. Sharp has been substituting for her.

Mrs. T. E. Beard substituted for Mrs. Cecil Simms, who was absent last Wednesday and Thursday due to the illness of her daughter Alice Mae. Mrs. A. M. Roberts, a graduate of West Texas State Teachers College, taught her classes Monday.

Mr. D. M. Shepherd was absent from school all day Thursday and Friday morning, due to illness.

Mr. Perry H. Bell, a senior from West Texas State College, took charge of shop and mechanical drawing students Thursday of last week while Mr. Milton Sanders filled the duties of principal and superintendent in the absence of E. A. Wooten.

Technicians Make Voice Recordings

"You have an outstanding choir, one of which to be very proud," stated Mr. James Storey, who made a record of the Canyon High A Cappella Choir, Tuesday January 27. "The Cherubim Song" and "Fair-est Lord Jesus" were the selections chosen to be recorded by Mr. M. D. Shepherd, director.

Several students also had recordings made of their voices and piano playing.

Frankie Sneed sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Indian Love Call"; Betty Jean Schuette sang "The Lord's Prayer," with Mrs. Glenn Dowlen accompanying on the piano. Donna Erwin played her own boogie-woogie composition. Frances Gooch and Donna sang "Choo Choo Ch' Boogie," "The Old Lamp Lighter" and "Copper-Colored Gal O' Mine."

Mr. Storey, music writer, has his own private music class in Long Beach, California, where he and Mr. John Owens started their tour. For about three months they plan to continue visiting and making recordings until they reach Chicago. Mr. Owens is a radio recording technician.

The aluminum records cost $2 and the regular ones are $1.25.

Students Receive Spanish Readers

"Sigamos Leyendo" is the name of the new reader recently bought by the Spanish II class.

This is the second book of The Heath-Chicago Spanish Series. It consists of retold Spanish stories, idioms, vocabulary, and exercises over the stories.

The first book of this series "De Todo Un Poco" was used for word study and paragraph and sentence structure during the first semester.

The students are also studying the conjugation of irregular and regular verbs in all the tenses.

"Such books adds enthusiasm to the regular class work," states Mrs. A. K. Knott, instructor, "and in reading these books students learn much about the customs and ideals of our neighbors to the south."

Due to the fact that Ted Nicklaus, seventh grader, was ill and out of school last week, he was unable to take his mid-term exams, and his name was omitted from the honor roll as having four "A's."

"Such delicious refreshments," states Mrs. Murrell, "makes us feel that we are fortunate in being remembered so graciously." The food was served from a lace-covered table centered with a blooming geranium circled by blue tapers in crystal holders.

Surprising the entire room last Friday, Mrs. L. C. Ruthardt, Garland's mother, brought three angel food cakes and cherrios to Mrs. Goodman's third grade in honor of Garland's birthday.

Fourth graders of Mrs. Cousins' room have been studying vegetables and making art prints or clay models of them.

Burrus Selected All-Star Cager

Eaglettes Unsuccessfully Battle Bobbies in Hard Scrimmage

A two point lead beat Canyon High out of winning the Dimmitt Tournament Saturday night, January 31. The tournament hosts managed to pull through and win their own tournament after losing one game to Canyon the night before.

Tournament Starts

The tournament started Thursday night for the Eagles. Claude fell to the high-spirited Canyon quintet 61-22. Every man on the CHS squad got to play and scored at least three points. High scoring honors went to Austell Burrus with thirteen points followed by Charles Wright with twelve points. At the half the score was 42-9. At that time the second string was sent in, Bruce Winn and James Inman scoring six points each to pace the second half.

Dalhart was supposed to be the next foe of the ravaging Eagles, however, they withdrew from the tournament and defaulted.

Beat Dimmitt

Friday night the Eagles added another win to their long string by defeating Dimmitt 36-31 in a hotly contested battle. Billy Abbott and Burrus tied for high point man with eleven points each. This win put them into the finals Saturday night.

Dimmitt also fought their way to the finals. In the second meeting of the two teams, Dimmitt edged the Eagles 38-36. Burrus paced his team with thirteen points. The Eagles gained ten points in the last half after a half-time score of 27-15.

A highly deserving player, Austell Burrus, was placed on the All-Tournament team. He was also high scorer for the Canyon team, tallying 37 points.

Maxine Barnard, senior, has entered the journalism class for the second semester. She will now be listed as a reporter.

PARK COMMUNITY HOLDS BOX SUPPER FOR MARCH OF DIMES

The Park Community held its regular box supper in the Conley School House, Thursday, Jan. 30, at 7 o'clock, for the March of Dimes. A short business session was held before the boxes were auctioned off. The Park Community has entered the Rural Neighborhood Contest, sponsored by the Oklahoma Farmer-Stockman. The following officers were elected to supervise the contest: Chairman: Mr. Lynn Bennett; vice chairman, Mrs. J. V. T. Burk, Mr. C. V. May, Mrs. Flynn Winters. The purpose of this contest is to stimulate individual and neighborhood effort toward farm and home improvement the idea of making the farm a more desirable and convenient place to live—more attractive to farm youth. Prizes total $3,100 and there are ten prizes, the first $1,000. Since some neighborhoods already rank ahead of others in improvements, scores will be made on improvement achievement made in 1947, rather than on a comparison of desirable neighborhood alone. Music for the evening was furnished by Mr. Lancaster and son from Amarillo. Calvin Casey auctioned off the most attractive boxes. Several home-made cakes and pies were also auctioned off. The chairman of the March of Dimes, Mrs. J. V. Williams, turned in $172.

Fears Housing May Get Worse

Not Until Turn of Year Will Demand Begin to Level Off, Says Wyatt.

WASHINGTON. — The housing shortage will get worse, not better, this winter, warns Housing Expediter Wilson W. Wyatt. He said 287,110 houses of all kinds had been completed so far this year. He hopes thousands more will be ready before winter.

In a monthly report he added: "Constantly rising demand at present more than offsets the additional accommodations . . . and not until after the turn of the year will the demand begin to level off."

The price tags on new G.I. houses were too high for the average veteran, Wyatt declared. He asserted that at the end of July half of the G.I. houses planned were to sell for $7,500 or more. Another obstacle in the government's plans to have 1,200,000 veteran houses and apartments started in 1946 was a labor shortage.

Meanwhile W. A. Bryant, chief of the civilian production administration's consumer durable goods division, said a veteran who succeeded in buying one of Wyatt's houses might have trouble furnishing it. Bryant said hardwood production had doubled, a fact now showing up at furniture factories. But demand is two to three times greater than in 1941, he said, declaring that all wood furniture would probably be short for another year or two. He said that upholstered furniture was in somewhat better supply.

60,000 Homes Finished. Wyatt's report said that of the 287,000 new dwellings completed through July, only 194,200 were permanent houses and apartment units. The rest were trailers, conversions of existing buildings, or surplus war housing put to re-use.

Only about 60,000 of the individual permanent homes started in 1946 have been finished, which means that a majority of the dwellings begun under veterans' housing priority are standing in various stages of completion.

From 85 to 90 per cent of all new dwellings completed under the national housing program this year now are actually occupied by veterans, Wyatt said. The type of homes that veterans are getting, he added, appear to be "of better quality than those erected in the building boom of the 1920's." He declared that recent criticisms of the structures had proved justified in only a few cases.

Wyatt announced also that Secretary of the Treasury John Snyder had approved a new tax policy to stimulate the building of rental housing projects for moderate income veterans. Builders and owners of such projects will be allowed to show faster depreciation for income tax purposes in the first years after completion of the project. Heretofore the depreciation write-off has been equal year by year.

Labor Trouble Spreads. The labor problem showed up in "a large number of communities," Wyatt said, especially in such skilled trades as bricklaying and carpentering. Instead of a movement of labor into residential work, the trend has been the other way—95,000 new workers went into non-housing construction in July, against 32,000 into home building, the NHA chief said. This trend, he added, "reflects the high level of commercial and industrial building."

Production of scarce building materials has been rising steadily. But not rapidly enough to meet demand. In July lumber output hit a new 1946 high, brick production topped all records since December, 1941, and gypsum products attained a postwar high.

Current shortages, however, tend to center in plumbing, hardware and other finishing items which are needed in the latter stages of home construction. Builders therefore are reluctant to start a home, because they are uncertain whether they will be able to finish it for sale even when the main construction job is done.

Output of prefabricated homes continued to lag. Only 3,000 factory built houses were shipped in July, about the same number as in June.

Japan Will Distribute Relief Shipped From U. S.

TOKYO.—Allied headquarters directed the Japanese government to take responsibility for handling relief supplies shipped here by United States organizations for distribution among Japanese needy. Headquarters has approved entry into Japan of 2,000 tons of such supplies each month. The Japanese government will be held accountable for loss or theft.

Gets No Milk of Kindness From Police Department

MILWAUKEE. — Never call the police department if you expect sympathy.

After a terrific thundershower had caused a power failure here a woman called headquarters to complain that she was unable to milk 24 head of cattle with her milking machine. The desk man told her:

"Lady, I guess you'll have to do what you did before you had that machine."

U. S. Aluminum production is now four times greater than highest pre-war year.

Rubber industry experts favor continued operation of enough "American rubber" (synthetic) plants to produce 150,000 tons annually regardless of available crude. This is 100,000 tons less than the Batt Interagency (rubber) Policy Committee recommended.

Unique Meetings at the Baptist Church Continues Feb. 9-23

DR. ROY L. JOHNSON

The First Baptist Church of Canyon will have a unique revival February 9-23, according to announcement of Dr. Roy L. Johnson, local pastor who will do the preaching. All messages by the preacher will be from the Gospel of John. This is unique.

There will be gospel motion pictures each night, and this is unique. The church-owned sound projector will be used to portray pictures produced by Scriptures Visualized Institute of Chicago. Titles have been selected which will be of special interest with the sermons to be delivered each night by the pastor. A small copy of the Gospel will be given each hearer in order that all may study the Scripture together.

Music for the services will be directed by Robert Kilgore, director for the local church, and people of the whole community are being invited to join in the Bible study and worship.

Another unique feature of this series of meetings is that it is one of many other revivals being conducted in the Plains area at the same time. More than a hundred Baptist churches will have meetings during this two-week period. While many others are having visiting preachers, the Canyon church is using local forces only, and they hope their friends will use this opportunity to get better acquainted with the Baptist church of the community.

Fairview Breezes

We have really had some old fashioned dust storms the past week.

Those attending singing at Valleyview Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Wesley, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Shipman and children, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Sharpes and children, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wesley, the Misses Vesta and Lavinia Amerson and Ervin Wilson.

The E. W. Schaeffer family and Rayford Shipman went to Plainview Sunday afternoon to take Fayerene Schaeffer back to work. Aunt Serena Bryan has been sick but is able to be home now.

Mrs. Harney Rogers stayed last week with Mrs. Haley Hodges who had been ill but is up and able to do her work.

The Centerville H. D. Club will meet in the home of Mrs. E. W. Schaeffer in an all day meeting to quilt for the Spiser family who lost their home by fire.

Wayside Items

Today was Rev. Martin's regular day. The district superintendent delivered an excellent sermon at the 11 o'clock hour and lunch was served in the basement after which the business of the Quarterly Conference was held. A number from other communities on the charge were present.

Mrs. Tub Ramey and children of Amarillo attended church services Sunday morning at Wayside.

Mr. and Mrs. Kotton McGehee have the material to begin remodeling their house and expect to begin next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Modiestte were Canyon callers Sunday afternoon.

Miss Pauline Seales of Canyon and Harold Woolsey of Happy were married Feb. 1 by Rev. G. W. Stewart at his home in Wayside.

Oil industry is starting an expansion that's expected to go on for 20 years or more. Demand for refined oil products in 1950 promise to be 32% higher than in 1941, biggest pre-war year; 46% higher in 1965.

U. S. auto industry expects to meet all replacement requirements by 1950, when 31.5 million passenger cars will be in use. Increase thereafter will be relatively slow. By 1965 cars in use will total 40 million.

Moves to outlaw post-season football games will probably die quietly, nevertheless financial flops and narrow squeaks in many of this year's 21 bowl games will reduce the number scheduled next year.
